

THE RICHMOND AUTISM INTERAGENCY COMMITTEE PRESENTS THE 8TH ANNUAL
RICHMOND AUTISM
RESOURCE FAIR
NOVEMBER 16TH

Featuring the Incredible Shelley Moore!

Shelley Moore is a highly sought-after teacher, researcher, speaker and storyteller and has worked with school districts and community organizations throughout both Canada and the United States

Come join us for a hassle free, no pressure opportunity to meet and mingle with a wide variety of professionals, groups and businesses providing services in the Richmond area.

This is a free event but registration is required. Please register online at <https://autismresourcefair2019.eventbrite.ca>
If you are having trouble please call 604-233-3124

Also Featuring a Special Appearance from Mayday Club
Youth Choir

Key Note:

Lucas Gates

My Journey on the Spectrum

Shelley Moore:

Inclusive Education: What does it mean in today's classrooms?

This session will deconstruct what inclusive education means and discuss common misunderstandings. We will leave with ideas and possibilities of inclusive learning and all who benefit.

Community Panel:

Various Community Service Providers
who offer inclusive programming

Saturday

November 16, 2019

8:30-2pm

Pacific Autism Family Network

3688 Cessna Drive

Richmond BC

<https://autismresourcefair2019.eventbrite.ca>