DUCKLINGS!

Wow! We have had a surprising update from our egg-hatching adventure here in the library. One of our little ducklings has hatched! They weren't due to start hatching for another few days, so you can bet Mrs. Martens was surprised to come in Tuesday morning to find one of the eggs almost hatched! A strong, healthy little duckling hatched into the world at 6:30am at Ferris Elementary AND we caught it on camera. Students have been enjoying watching the video of the hatching and are continuing to cast votes to determine the little one's name. Front runners are "Sir Quacksalot II" and "Brightbill", a name taken from the beloved novel, The Wild Robot.

There are still 3 viable eggs in the incubator and we hope they will become 3 more little ducklings to keep this one company. What an exciting time!!

FERRIS FUN FAIR

Our Annual Ferris Fun Fair is coming up on Thursday, May 28th!

Raffle tickets are now available for purchase under the Fundraising tab on Munch-a-Lunch. Each booklet contains 10 tickets and is priced at $20. The order deadline is Wednesday, May 20th at 11:59 PM. Orders will be distributed to your child in class next Friday. Raffle tickets are also available for purchase by cash from PAC table at Breakfast Club and near the playground after school.

Early Bird Game Passes are on sale for $15 per student (it will be $20 on the day of Fun Fair). Don't miss the chance to save! On the day of the Fun Fair, the Game Pass will be attached to your child's wrist in class.
